

Application under Directive 2005/36/EC – European Commission for license as a Chartered Land Surveyor

Application: Official appointment as Chartered Land Surveyor under the Land Surveyors Act, cf. Consolidation Act No. 680 of June 17th 2013.

Address of competent authority:

Danish Geodata Agency
Lindholm Brygge 31
DK-2400 9400 Nørresundby.
Denmark
Tel.: +45 72 54 50 00
E-mail: gst@gst.dk

The applicant hereby requests to be appointed as a Chartered Land Surveyor:

Full name and address and phone number of applicant (business address):

.....
.....
.....
.....

The applicant attaches the below documentation to prove that the conditions for official appointment are met:

- Proof of identity and nationality (e.g. copy of passport). Evidence of formal qualification as a land surveyor, to be assessed cf. Directive 2005/36/EC of the European Parliament and of the Council of 7 september 2005 on the recognition of professional qualifications:
 1. A) if the profession is regulated in your country an authorization certificate or other certificate that gives you access to the profession or B) if the profession is not regulated in your country evidence that you have pursued the profession on a full-time basis for one year during the previous 10 years in a EU Member State which does not regulate the profession
 2. Educational evidence relevant to your profession.
 3. Curriculum for your education (training description) including descriptions about the courses, subjects in each courses, indication of the time (eg hours, weeks or ECTS points) allocated to each subject and the balance between the theoretical part and the practical part of the program if the education consists of both.
 4. Any additional documentation / additional information that you think may be relevant to the assessment of your professional and educational qualifications, or any other relevant information that you wish to provide, for example. Curriculum vitae

By signing this form, the applicant declares, that he or she is of legal age and not under guardianship.

By signing this form, the applicant further declares that he or she is not the subject of an administration order and has not entered into bankruptcy proceedings.

Date:

.....

Signature of applicant land surveyor

The completed application and attachments can be sent by letter or e-mail to the Danish Geodata Agency, or submitted via the Danish Business Authority's point of single contact: www.BusinessInDenmark.dk.

The Danish Geodata Agency is the responsible data controller, cf. the Danish Act on Processing of Personal Data. Any information received will be processed confidentially, and used for the purpose of assessing the application for a license as a Chartered Land Surveyor. Information can be exchanged with relevant authorities in other EU/EEA countries, cf. the Land Surveyors Act, section 1, subsection 6 and 7. Data subjects have the right of access to and the right to rectify data concerning them under the Act on Processing of Personal Data.